

HIV GRAND ROUNDS

"A Two Decade Journey with People who Inject Drugs: Lessons from Back to the Future"

Dr. Solomon will share his journey working with PWID in India. He will focus on the evolution of his research from a single cross-sectional study in one city to several multi-city cluster randomized trials. He will also describe the lessons learned along the way and how it impacted his own career.

Sunil Suhas Solomon, MBBS, PhD, MPH

Professor of Medicine and Epidemiology,
Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine
